

Some of the highlights of Kathleen's visit to Coventry

Kathleen arrived about 8 am on Thursday 6th October 2011. Coventry is only about 15 minutes from Birmingham International Airport so that part of the journey is easy, but Kathleen had been travelling since the morning before; and as she finds she can prevent jet lag if she just drinks water and does not eat she was very hungry. Adam, Usha and I quickly got her luggage to her room and found the nearest café that was open to get breakfast.

Things started to happen as they usually do when Kathleen is about, Usha's mobile had been out of charge but as it sat on the table between her and Kathleen is started to show several bars of charge. (On another day after I gave Kathleen a lift a door that had not been responding to the central locking system started to work again) It was then back to the hotel for Kathleen to rest. Later in the afternoon people came for re-initiations and initiation into the new Heart Chakra Initiation, those who were Cahokia 3 level or above were taught how to give the initiation to others. Any one can receive this initiation, but it needs Cahokia 3 energy to have the power to pass it on.

The next day Friday was Egyptian Cartouche Initiations. It seemed to me that the Universe had conspired to totally re-arrange the people who were booked to do this workshop to those that actually attended. As the day started it became apparent why this had happened. I had been having a strong feeling that something was happening with The Egyptian Cartouche and I had to mention to Kathleen and the group that I felt the Cartouche needed a clearing of some sort.

As the group tuned in this was proved right and it took some time and effort from the group to get to the desired result with everyone feeling all problems had been well and truly cleared. The Egyptian Cartouche was back as it should be but even more powerful and easy to work with in some way. As Kathleen continued to initiate each person into the 26 archetypal symbols she was given the information on how to quickly and easily bring the new cleared and more powerful initiations to those who were properly attuned to the Cartouche already, it involves a slight tweak to the Eye of Horus initiation at the third eye.

One does not need to be re-attuned to all the symbols, just receive the Horus third eye initiation and this brings in the new energy of the whole of the Cartouche. I could feel the energy being ramped up as I just sat observing the initiations, and since I have had Horus done at my third eye I find working with the Cartouche much easier and I can visualise all the symbols quite easily whereas before I had to keep looking at the cards to remind me.

Saturday was a day of working with the Egyptian Cartouche energies. Those who had received the Cartouche initiations before this weekend seemed to benefit the most, getting clear images as we worked with particular groups of symbols. Those who had received the initiations only the day before were still learning and familiarising themselves with the symbols.

Saturday evening was third eye initiation (not the Eye of Horus one) and seeing past lives. Kathleen called in the energies and protection and gave everyone the initiation. Kathleen gave us some advice and instruction on seeing and then volunteered to be looked at first. I was impressed that she puts herself out there to be scrutinised. She stood with her back towards us facing the cobalt blue background we had set up and raised her hands above her head fingertips together and then as we watched pulled them slowly apart. I was amazed, I am not normally clairvoyant but I could clearly see with my physical eyes a wide band of bright white gold energy stretching six to ten inches long between her hands as she drew them apart from each other.

As if this was not mind blowing enough for me Kathleen, and then many others stood in front of the cobalt blue wall facing us and I could see as clear as day each persons face changing, female to male, having a beard to clean shaven, having glasses, long hair to short hair, height and weight changing as each character, each past life came forward to be healed. I would not have believed it if I had not been there. I always thought that only the really psychic people would see anything, but it was so clear I had to keep blinking to make sure it was real, and I think everyone there was also able to see these things.

Sunday was the brand new never taught before class which at the time did not even have a working title. It is now called "Healing through Visualisation with the Angels" Also a brand new initiation at the thumbs and forefingers.

Below is part of what Kathleen has since written about this workshop:-

"When I was a little girl, I never put my hands on anyone to heal. I simply watched the Angels. The experience was always powerful, profound and effective!

I have explained on my site and in my book how my parents were not thrilled with my participation in this activity, and that my Gifts slowly disappeared BUT not entirely. There would be occasions when the ability to heal by simply observing the Angels would suddenly appear as I was growing up, and after God began returning my full healing abilities to me. Other healers have told me that this type of healing by observation alone has only happened occasionally through them.

This particular Gift returned to me in such a way that I was able to consciously call upon it. It happened when I was taking a class, which did not deal with healing. I had been strongly drawn to take this class. During this class, I could feel the Angels working above my head. Afterwards, I was consciously able to call upon the Angels and this Gift to facilitate healings.

During the workshop that you took with me, I could feel the Angels working above your head, so that you, too, will be able to heal through observing the Angels. The initiation you received, involving the thumbs and index fingers, brings healing to a laser focus. While healing in this manner, it helps a great deal to touch thumbs to index fingers." -KM

Here is part of what I experienced during this workshop: - After receiving the initiation we each sat opposite a partner to work with and asked their permission to see inside their body. We then mainly kept our eyes closed and asked to be shown the body area by area and asking to see any problems, then asking the angels to heal it. We did not touch our partners or draw symbols we just observed what the angels showed us. I saw the throat and what looked like a butterfly shaped necklace, I knew it meant the thyroid and I asked the angels to bring the appropriate healing and just watched this happen and told my partner what I was observing and they said they had been on thyroid medication for years, and I was very impressed with myself I can tell you. I also got the impression of this person wearing boots and I just knew this meant they had a weakness in their ankles and this too was confirmed by my partner.

After this workshop I joked that I would have to sell my couch if this method of healing was so easy and effective.

On the Wednesday Kathleen and a small group of us had a field trip to Stratford on Avon, we managed to visit the crystal shop and we all found a piece that was just meant for each of us.

We then visited a Harry Potter themed attraction for fun and ended up doing some clearing in the building as well. There were some scary masks and spooky lighting and I believe some people/children had been really frightened here and that energy needed to be cleared.

We then went to the main event which is acknowledged as one of the most haunted places in the country with some quite malevolent spirits.

Every few feet we travelled through the building we needed to stop and Kathleen did clearings, asking the celestial angels to open the vortex for earth bound spirits while we held the energy and tuned in to what was required. Each clearing we did was followed a feeling, a message if you like, of gratitude from the spirits/energies that had taken advantage of the vortex and angelic help.

As we came to the last room I felt the strongest heaviest energy yet coming from behind a curtain that covered the last doorway. As we drew back the curtain we were faced a photograph that had been enhanced with 3D style effects to make it look very scary of Aleister Crowley. In this small room were packed artefacts that had belonged to Crowley, a planchet, a chair, charts and other stuff. Kathleen started the clearing and I drew clearing symbols over all the items that I felt had unhelpful energy. After some time and effort all felt well and we left. As we walked in the autumn sunshine Kathleen asked did Aleister Crowley go to the Light, we got a clear yes but also that he was relieved.

When I was home that evening relaxing reading the local paper The Coventry Evening Telegraph, I glanced at the feature that gives facts about events that happened that day in history. I felt a shiver of energy as I read - "On this day (12th October) 1875 Modern day Satanist Aleister Crowley- once dubbed "the wickedest man in the world" was born in Leamington, Warwickshire".(Leamington is the next door neighbour to Stratford on Avon where we had been that day.)

Wednesday evening was magical, as it was Wednesday Kathleen led the group in the Wednesday 8pm clearing and healing. Before we started Kathleen called in a powerful angelic presence and adapted the angel initiations for a large group. We each received a magical angelic essence brought through Kathleen and sprinkled from her fingers to each of us in turn. We then had four volunteers connect with the angelic presence and blow the energy into the crown of each person present. Afterwards many of the participants shared that it had been a very beautiful experience and how clearly they had felt the angels' presence.

Thursday we sadly had to take Kathleen back to the airport for her journey home. I look forward to when we can arrange another visit for her.

Anita.
